Nicholas Liese currently is studying organ with Dr. Martin Dicke. As an organist, harpsichordist, and trumpeter, he has arranged works for solo organ, harpsichord, brass, and choir. All of which are based on the Hymns of the Church. His repertoire include Bach's "Eight Little Preludes and Fugues", Mendelssohn's "Sonata VI", Purcell's "Voluntary on the Doxology", and many others. After High School, Nicholas plans to matriculate to Concordia University Wisconsin, where he will pursue a Bachelors Degree in Parish Music and K-12 Choral Education. Ultimately he desires to serve in a full-time capacity as Church Organist & Choral Director.
