SCOTT MONTGOMERY

Holding undergraduate and graduate degrees in organ performance from University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign where he was a student of Professor Dana Robinson, Scott Montgomery is Director of Music Ministries and organist for Holy Cross Catholic Church in Champaign. His achievements include winning the highest and most prestigious performance competitions of America, receiving accolades from judges, audiences, and reviewers alike. Acclaimed as a sensitive and rock solid performer, one able to hold and capture an audience's attention and admiration, he is sought after for concert performances for the pipe organ in all venues. His performances have included new organ dedications, American Guild of Organists and Organ Historical Society National Conventions, as well as recitals in concert halls and churches across the USA and abroad. He has been a featured artist on the acclaimed "Pipedreams" broadcast on public radio. As a recording artist, Scott has debuted several solo CD albums. His next CD recording will feature the historic pipe organ at St Mary's Cathedral in Peoria, Illinois. He is also engaged in teaching, leading Master Classes, as well as offering private instruction.
