Presents Organist

DANA ROBINSON

In Recital

Sunday, October 29, 2000

3:30 PM

Trinity Lutheran Church

135 N. E. Randolph St.

Peoria, Illinois

Today's Artist
DR. DANA ROBINSON

Dana Robinson teaches organ at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and is organist of Wesley United Methodist Church and Foundation at the University of Illinois.

A native of the Boston area, he graduated with Distinction in Performance from the New England Conservatory, receiving the Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees. He holds the Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Iowa, and has studied at the Norddeutsche Orgelakademie.

Dana Robinson has performed on some of the most significant modern and historic organs in the United States, and has presented recitals, master classes, and lectures for the Boston and River Valley chapters of the American Guild of Organists, the Round Lake Historical Society, Boston's "First Night" festival, Methuen Memorial Music Hall, the Old West Organ Society, and the National Convention of the Organ Historical Society.

He has also appeared with The Boston Cæcelia, Baroque Artists of Champaign, and with Dutch organist Paul Tegels, with whom he gives frequent duet recitals. His performances are frequently featured on the nationally syndicated radio program Pipedreams.

An active church musician, he has served as Organist and Choir Master of Trinity Cathedral in Davenport, Iowa, as Organist and Director of Music for the Center of Faith and Life at Luther College, and currently as Organist of Wesley United Methodist Church in Urbana. He has held teaching appointments at Central College of Iowa, and Luther College.

The recipient of numerous awards and honors, Dana Robinson won the Youth Concerts at Symphony Hall Concerto Competition, and First Prize in the Arthur Poister Competition. In 1988 he received the Frank Huntington Beebe Grant for study abroad. His principal teachers include George Faxon, Yuko Hayashi, Harald Vogel, and Delbert Disselhorst, and pianists Julius Chaloff and Kenneth Amada.

The Peoria Chapter of the American Guild of Organists is privileged to present Dr. Dana Robinson today in recital, performing works of Johann Sebastian Bach, in this, the 250TH Anniversary Year of the demise of the "Great Bach."
